

Social and Personal

The marriage of Mrs. Winifred Hayden and Jonathan Bryan, of Richmond, was celebrated very quietly yesterday morning in the St. Regis Hotel in New York, the Rev. Percy Grant performing the ceremony. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will leave shortly for a trip around the world, and on their return will make their home in Richmond.

Bride Entertained.
Mrs. Ivey Foreman Lewis was hostess of a beautifully appointed luncheon yesterday at her home in Ashland in honor of Miss Mary Austin, whose marriage to Dr. Joseph Leake, of Deane's, was celebrated yesterday evening. As the last course of the luncheon was served the bride was showered with dainty linen by Master Roy Dunn. Those present at the affair were Misses Haw, Vandiver, Tucker, and Wright.

Washington Wedding.
The following from the Washington Post of yesterday is of interest to Richmond society, where both bride and groom have a number of friends and relatives:

"Another of the military weddings of the spring was solemnized last night, when Miss Lucie Lee Garrard, daughter of the commanding officer at Fort Myer, Colonel Joseph Garrard, and Mrs. Garrard, became the bride of Lieutenant Victor S. Foster, United States Army. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock in the administration building at the fort. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, officiating. The flag of the nation was conspicuous among the daisies and palms which adorned the improvised chancel. The cavalry color predominated.

Two little ribbon girls, Miss Foy Barnhardt and Miss Margaret Treat, wearing white frocks, preceded the bride party, carrying chains of daisies, which formed the aisle to the chancel. Six ushers, fellow-officers of the bridegroom in the cavalry branch of the service, wearing full dress uniform, led the bride party, which included six bridesmaids in lingerie gowns of white batiste and lace, with bands of yellow satin and made over yellow satin, all carrying ropes of white daisies tied with yellow tulle. The maid of honor, Miss Valeria Garrard, sister of the bride, preceded the bride, who walked with her father. The ushers were Captain Julian Lindsay, Captain Warren Dean, Captain

Miss Eleanor Grant, of Cincinnati; Miss Edna Hirschinger, of Charlotte, N. C.; Miss Linnor Gooch, of Covington, Ky.; Miss Mary White, and Miss Laura White, of Harrisonville, Mo., and Miss Clara Swift, of Washington, were the bridesmaids. The maid of honor wore a gown of yellow marquisette over satin of the same shade, and carried a bouquet of yellow daisies. The bride's gown was of white chamois lace over white satin with a court train of point de Venise lace. She wore a tulle veil, trimmed with lace, which was worn by her grandmother. She carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and gardenias.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, who wore the full dress uniform of his rank. The bridegroom, who was attended by Dr. H. H. Bailey, also wore his uniform. A reception with dancing followed the ceremony. Mrs. Foster, mother of the bridegroom, assisted Colonel and Mrs. Garrard. Lieutenant Foster and his bride left Washington for New York last night. They will be at home after June 15 at Fort Myer, where Lieutenant Foster is stationed.

Dundas-Mitchell.

The marriage of Miss Ellen Douglas Mitchell, of Staunton, and F. de Sales Dundas was celebrated at St. Patrick's Parish house, Philadelphia, on Tuesday, May 30, Rev. Father Flood officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, of "Hill Crest," near Staunton, and for some time has made her home in Philadelphia. Mr. Dundas is now at the Waldorf Astoria in New York, and will make their home in Washington on their return from New York.

Visiting Here.
Mrs. Robert Edward Wright will arrive in Richmond June 7, from California, to be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Robert Page Grymes, 2 East Franklin Street. Mrs. Grymes will visit her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Howsley, next week.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norlorn Dyke have announced the engagement of their daughter, Bertha Lucy, to Samuel Seddon Atkins, of King and Queen. The wedding will be celebrated on Wednesday morning, June 23, at 10 o'clock in Glebe Landing Church, Middlesex county.

Ross-Corling.
A very pretty home wedding took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride, 1615 West Grace Street, when Miss Cally Warwick Corling, daughter of Charles Thompson Corling, and William Eldridge Ross, of Bluefield, West Virginia, were married. The ceremony was performed by the uncle of the bride, Rev. Tazewell Norton McCorkle, of Lynchburg, and in the presence of the nearest relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom. The library, where the ceremony was performed, was prettily arranged with palms, ferns, sweet peas and roses. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played at the entry of the bride party. James Samuel Kahle, of Bluefield, was the groom's best man, and little Robert McCluer, a nephew of the bride, held the bouquet during the ceremony.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ross left for Niagara and other points of interest in the North, and on their return will make their home in Bluefield, where Mr. Ross is a prominent attorney. The bride is prominently related throughout the State and has a large circle of friends in this city. Mr. Ross is a son of Charles T. Ross, of Rocky Mount, and formerly practiced law in Richmond, where he was associated with John H. Pollock, and later resided in the edition and publication of Virginia Code Annotated and Justice's Annotations to the Code of West Virginia. For the past five years he has been located in Bluefield.

Society Entertainment.
A very charming entertainment was given Monday night by the Pi Kappa Epsilon Sorority to the senior class at Fredericksburg. The chapter house was decorated for the occasion with vases of bright flowers, and the lawn was festively lit with Japanese lanterns and tables. Punch was served from a booth on the lawn. Miss Mary McFaden, Miss Helen Moore and Miss Jeanette Stearnes, all of this city, were among the out of town guests present in honor of Mrs. May.

Mrs. Charles Slaughter, of Norfolk, was hostess at a very pretentious informal tea on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Edward May, who leaves next week with a Richmond party to spend several months traveling abroad. Mrs. Slaughter's rooms were decorated with quantities of red roses and ferns.

In and Out of Town.
Miss Elizabeth Cooke and Miss Anderson will leave town Monday for Boston, where they will be the guests of Miss Curtis for a week.

Miss Lily Moncreu, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. T. Still, in Newport News, for the past six weeks, has returned to the city.

Miss Georgie Goodloe, of this city, is a guest of Mrs. W. T. Cloud, in Charlottesville, en route for Afton.

Miss Charlotte Pleasants, of Wilmington, N. C., is a guest of Mrs. William M. Habliston, at "Windemere."

'ECZEMA ITCHED SO I COULDN'T STAND IT'

Began by Little Pimples. Scratched Until Blood Came. Kept Getting Worse. Could Not Sleep Nights. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and the First Day They Relieved Itching. In 3 Weeks Eczema Cured.

"I suffered with eczema on my neck for about six months, beginning by little pimples breaking out. I kept scratching till the blood came. It kept getting worse. I couldn't sleep nights any more. It kept itching for about a month, then I went to a doctor and got some ointment. It seemed as if I was getting better. The itching stopped for about three days, but when it started again, was even worse than before. The eczema itched so badly I couldn't stand it any more. I went to a doctor and he told me to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The first day I put it on, it relieved me of itching so I could sleep all that night. It took about a week, then I could see the scab come off. I kept the treatment up for three weeks, and my eczema was cured."

"My brother got his face burned with gunpowder, and he used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The people all thought he would have scars, but he didn't see that he ever had his face burned. It was simply awful to look at before the Cuticura Remedies (Soap and Ointment) cured it. Signed: Miss Elizabeth Gehrl, Forrest City, Ark., Oct. 16, 1910."

OUTING CLUB TO OPEN SATURDAY

Y. W. C. A. Offers Prizes to Girls Who Win Athletic Events.

The opening of the Young Women's Christian Association Outing Club at Ginter Park on Saturday afternoon from 6 to 7, and evening from 8 to 10, is an event of great interest to many young women.

The gymnasium committee, composed of Miss Katherine Hawes, Mrs. W. A. Crenshaw, Mrs. Taylor Robinson, Miss Katherine Ricks, Miss Pauline Powers, and Mrs. Chiles Ferrell, will transfer their activities to the Outing Club. Miss Armes and Miss Haley will direct the out-of-door sports. Full information will be given Saturday as to the summer plans and the prizes to be awarded for championship in the various athletic displays.

A beautiful silver loving cup, and tennis racquet will be awarded for tennis as follows: Loving cup to be won in tournament for three consecutive years by one person. Tennis racquet, to winner of tennis singles. Tennis racquet covers to winner in doubles.

For the best collection of wild flowers, prize—"Nature's Garden."

For best collection of leaves—"Nature's Garden."

For best collection of kodak pictures—First, kodak album; second, tripod.

Plans will be made Saturday for the beginning of all of these contests, and full directions given.

Big Outing Plans.

The Outing Club committee will direct all suppers, trips and social evenings under the leadership of the same directors. This committee is as follows: Mrs. S. H. Hawes, Mrs. J. Garland Pollard, Mrs. T. Cary Johnson, Mrs. Crawford Reed, Mrs. T. P. Bryan, Mrs. T. A. Cary, Mrs. M. G. Gover, Mrs. Lucile Cary, Mrs. W. D. Burrell. This committee will serve refreshments on Saturday afternoon and evening. Groups of girls who desire to bring a picnic lunch in the afternoon and remain for the evening program, will be furnished with ice tea. The Outing Club committee invites all young women to use the Outing Club as a picnic centre during the summer.

The home department of the association has been transferred to Richmond Hall for the summer, and the committee, composed of Mrs. Eugene Bingham, Mrs. H. H. Messer, Mrs. J. E. Quarles, Mrs. Temple Roy, is directing this part of the work, co-operating with the Outing Club committee.

Has Ideal Place.

There are already forty-five in the association family at Ginter Park. Almost every day, new registrations are received. Mrs. Meta Nelson and Mrs. Erwin are in charge of this department.

The beautiful, well-shaded campus, unexcelled water and constant breeze, makes this an ideal summer home. No prettier picture can be seen in Richmond than this group of girls playing ball, tennis, croquet, others resting and reading in hammocks and easy camp chairs and swings. This is the third year that the Young Women's Christian Association has had such a centre. At first it was known as the Y. W. C. A. Country Club, but owing to the adoption of that name by another Richmond club, the name has been changed to the Young Women's Christian Association Outing Club.

At the opening on Saturday, in addition to the features mentioned above, Miss Katherine Hawes will give a few words of welcome, and Miss M. C. Cordell will give a brief review of association activities for the summer. Mrs. Frank W. Duke will give several violin numbers in the evening. All the friends and members of the association are invited to be present.

Richeson-Turner.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Amherst, Va., June 1.—Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. H. H. Turner, a few miles from this place, Miss Mary Princess Holland was married to Thomas Russell Richeson, son of T. W. Richeson. Rev. C. E. Blankenship, of the Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. Immediately after which the couple left for Lynchburg, from which place they will go to Fluvanna county to visit the bride's old home. On their return they will reside at the home of the groom's brother, S. H. Richeson, in this county.

Lenke-Haw.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Ashland, Va., June 1.—The home of William Haw was the scene of a quiet and pretty wedding to-night, when his daughter, Mary Austin, became the wife of Dr. Josiah Leake, of Deane's. The house was decorated with palms, white roses and candles. Rev. R. A. Lapsley performed the ceremony, and Mrs. Fleming Fox played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a gray traveling suit, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and maidenhair ferns. Immediately after the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Leake left for a Northern trip. On their return they will live at Deane's. Dr. Leake is the son of J. Marion Leake, of Ashland, and has made his home at Deane's for the past two years.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. George P. Haw, George E. Haw, and Miss Mary Overton Haw, of "Dundee"; Miss Irene Jones, of New Kent county; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cross, of Highland Park; Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Mrs. C. P. Cross, Miss Irene Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jordan Leake, and Stuart C. Leake, of Richmond.

CUTCHIN IS GUILTY ON ALL FOUR CHARGES

Rule Embraces Malfeasance and Misfeasance in Office—Stay of Judgment Granted Until Appeal Is Made to Supreme Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Roanoke, Va., June 1.—After being out one hour and fifteen minutes, the jury in the case of Mayor Joel H. Cutchin returned a verdict at 12:55 finding the defendant guilty on all four charges in the rule charging malfeasance and misfeasance in office. The trial lasted sixteen days, and the record in the case embraces 1,200 typewritten pages. Following the conviction of Mayor Cutchin this afternoon Judge Mullen granted a stay of judgment of eighty-five days, in which time he will apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of supersedeas. Pending this, he will continue to hold office. Should it be granted, he will hold on until the case is disposed of. In event of the refusal of the writ President Siefert, of the Board of Aldermen, will fill the unexpired term, up to September 1, 1912.

The charges of contempt which were instituted against the Mayor during the proceedings were dropped, although Judge Mullen held that the defendant was guilty of contempt, in that he had cursed and abused a witness.

Trial Lasts Sixteen Days.
The trial was the first of the kind in the history of the county, and consumed sixteen days.

It was 12:55 o'clock when the jury filed into the courtroom and returned the verdict finding Mayor Joel H. Cutchin guilty, as charged in the rule, on all four specifications.

Not since the trial began, sixteen days ago, has the crowd in the courtroom been so small as when the verdict was returned. The jury had been out one hour and fifteen minutes, and the largest part of the crowd had left the courtroom, thinking that the jury would be unable to agree and would be adjourned over for dinner. Even when it became known that the jury was ready to come into the court the majority of people there expected that it would ask for an adjournment for dinner.

There was profound silence in the courtroom when Judge Mullen addressed Norman Greenwood, asking him if the jury had reached a verdict. Mr. Greenwood promptly said that it had, and gave him his verdict. Judge

Mullen read the verdict: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty, as charged in the rule to show cause."

There was no demonstration. The room was quieter than at any time in the proceedings. Mayor Cutchin occupied his accustomed seat. He uttered not a word, and not until after court adjourned did he speak to any one. He showed unmistakably that he was utterly crushed.

Mr. Smith then asked if the verdict meant victory on all four specifications in the rule. Mr. Greenwood, for man, said that the jury intended to convey that he was guilty on all four charges in the rule.

Verdict Is Announced.
It was several minutes before the verdict should be amended, and it reads: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as charged in the rule to show."

Interesting facts in connection with the case follow: Date of the meeting of the special grand jury, March 5. Names of grand jury—W. E. Renner, C. M. Armes, M. W. Turner, J. A. Page, H. P.
